Instructor: Jennifer Smith

Fee: $10.00

Wed, Apr 24	Barcode: 10222
Wed, May 22	Barcode: 10223

Open to all levels of fitness, ability or disability, ages, and genders. Modifications and adjustments are encouraged for your comfort, flexibility, strength, preference or choice. This class will be held at Thoman Park, outside in the grass behind the pavilion. We will breathe through gentle movements focusing on grounding and awakening the spine and continue to move to release any stuck points using somatic awareness. Tuning inward helps to quiet an overactive mind and encourage you to feel more whole and connected to your body. With less structure and form than yoga, embodied movement is flowing, nurturing your body and soul. There is no wrong way to move, only what does or does not feel good (or possible) in your body at the time. Please bring a blanket to start warming up on the ground (or mat, if you choose to be under the pavilion). Wear comfortably loose or well-fitted clothing, like yoga pants or sweatpants, whatever you can move easily in.

Awareness Through Movement

Time: 9:00-9:50 am

Location: Katy Cavins Community Center

Ages: 18-99

Instructor: Alex Shaefer

Fee: $40.00

Sat, Jun 8 - Sat, Jun 29	Barcode: 10225
--------------------------	----------------

Awareness Through Movement classes are voice guided movement lessons that improve the way the brain and the body communicate with each other. The movements are slow, gentle, and easy with emphasis on comfort, ease, and efficient use of effort. The lessons improve your nervous system's ability to sense, feel, think and act. Each lesson has a human function in mind: from basic activities like rolling, standing, walking: to more complex ideas like balancing, the spinal curves, diversifying breathing, or use of the eyes in movement. The only physical requirement is the ability to get up and down from the floor, but they can be modified for a chair if needed. This is a four-week class, with lessons on Saturday mornings. Lessons typically last 45-50 minutes.

Guided Somatic Movement blends into conscious breathwork. Reset and restore with a meditative healing Sound Therapy immersion. Time for connection while enjoying tea or cacao outside around the firepit, if desired. Bring a yoga mat, pillow, blanket, water bottle and any additional comfort items for laying on the floor.
