Barcode: 2266

You probably hear dad and his friends talking about their fantasy teams quite often. Want to get in on the fun? We are encouraging mom and son teams looking to get into fantasy football, to get together with us and learn the fundamentals. Mike Randall, 2024 Parks & Rec Fantasy Football League Champion, will teach you the ins and outs of one of the most popular, free games, in the world that anyone with a phone, tablet, or computer can play. We'll put together a league for a minimum of 8, maximum 14, mom and son teams to compete in, and also show you how to create a league of your own for your family and friends to compete in. We'll meet for 5 sessions prior to and through the season and learn what fantasy football is. We will teach you how to set up a league, draft your team, and manage your rosters. We'll meet for a monthly check in and gear up for the playoffs. Food and drink will be provided at our draft party! Want to learn how to beat your dad, spouse, and their annoying friends at a game they think they know? Sign up today!

*Disclaimer: The money collected from registration fees will go toward food and drink for our draft night party, and the first prize trophy at seasons end. No gambling, no cash prizes, family friendly!
